BITTING BROS.

There's Money In It.

That is the point which purchasers look at every time. "Is there money in it?" If you did not ask yourselves that question before buying, you would be a most notable exception to a universal rule. You not only have a right to ask it, but you have an equally good right to a distinct and convincing answer, and you do not want any quibbling about it either. If a positive and emphatic declaration will serve your purposes, we will give you one: A better purchase than our $10 Kersey Overcoats is not within the possibilities. Our profit on them is trifling; yours is anything but trifling—you get a good deal the best of the transaction. Equally good values in boys and children overcoats this week.

THE WIND-UP OF THE NOVEMBER CORNER IN CORN.

The Chicago Crowd Said to Have Been Running a Sideshow for New York Manipulators.

Western Railway Managers Kicking Against the Detention of Rolling Stock by Eastern Connections.

A Wichita Jobber Secures an Important Ruling From the Kansas Railway Commission—The Field Failure in New York a Complete Collapse—Assets Too Small to Pay the Clerks in the Office.

The Union Pacific Hts. Notes.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The Evening Journal says: "The wind-up on the November corn deal would seem to prove the assertion that the Chicago end was nothing but a sideshow to a big corner in New York. There are some who favor the belief that the Chicago heavy shipments of corn to New York to cover the contracts there were the cause of the pinch here. The advance in price to $1.10 in New York, against 75 cents in Chicago, is also evidence that some persons were having the secret turned on them in the former city today rather mercifully, and speculation was rife as to the fortune and misfortune of the parties. Cash grain was in splendid demand, to fill contracts. The manipulators of the corner had to buy, too, in order to keep up the price, 75 and 74 cents being the range taken in it. It was a very quiet but strong corner, shrewdly managed by parties heretofore unsuspected of the ability to successfully carry out a pinch in that line. But that they were favored by circumstances every one acknowledged."

One hundred thousand bushels of November corn were defaulted this afternoon at the end of the session of the board of trade. E. J. Ryan & Co. are defaulters to the extent of 60,000 bushels, and it is rumored that Blum & Eggleston are among the firms making up the other 40,000 bushels. The reason Ryan & Co. are defaulters is that an injunction was issued by Judge Tuley restraining them from filling an order of Harry Schloss. Schloss contracted to deliver November corn when the price was 49 cents, but he did not have the corn stored, and when it became necessary for him to pay 75 cents per bushel for 40,000 bushels, he brought an injunction suit on the ground that a combination had been formed and the price advanced to an unlawful figure. The corn was contracted to Lamson Bros. and was, in turn, sold by them. They expect to pay the shortage and bring suit against E. J. Ryan & Co.

New York, Nov. 30.—After the closing of the Prods. exchange today a well known Chicago grain operator briefly reviewed the corn situation. He said: "The whole facts of the case are just these: There has been a big demand for corn for export during the last thirty days, and the White corner caused the supplies of old corn—which is the only one that November contracts could be filled with—to fall short. Owing to the high price at which White put corn in the Chicago market, when the price of the corn shipped to New York was shipped abroad. The remaining corn in Chicago fell into the hands of a few buyers there, who shipped it as fast as possible to fill the New England demand. The consequence was that it left the Chicago market short of corn. The demand continued, the market rose, and the holders of the cash corn became the holders of options as well. There was no manipulation in the matter at all. It was just a natural corner, and the four or five people who held corn made a combine."

"The jump corn made in this market today was due to a blockade at Buffalo. Some of the western shippers had sold corn down here for November delivery, but owing to the large amount of grain in transit on the lakes, there are 10,000,000 bushels of corn in transit for which they cannot find an outlet."

THE RAILWAYS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The shipments of eastbound freight from Chicago last week, including live stock, aggregated 73,327 tons, as compared with a corresponding week of last year this is an increase of 3,000 tons. It is expected that the volume will reach 100,000 tons per week before the close of the year. It cannot go much higher than that, without straining the capacity of every eastern line. Already they are using so much of the equipment of the western connections that the latter are complaining loudly. All the western roads are short of cars. They say that they are compelled to furnish rolling stock for transportation clear to the seaboard, and that the eastern lines make little effort to return their cars promptly. The consequence is, they are suffering from a scarcity of cars, although they own sufficient equipment to enable them to handle their business without inconvenience if they could keep the cars on their own lines."

It is rumored today that the commissioners of the Western Traffic association are to hold a secret meeting this week for the purpose of investigating the alleged violations of the famous president's agreement. These violations, it is said, have reference to the paying of unauthorized commissions on western business. The Burlington, the Rock Island and several other western roads are involved.

THE SANTA FE REPORT.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 30.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway company has submitted its annual statement to the railway commissioners. The report shows a very favorable condition of things. There is no floating debt, and two percent interest on bonds is being paid. The gross earnings from operation were $24,634,435; operating expenses, $7,745,612; income from operation, $16,888,823; revenue from freight, $1,001,138; total income, $17,889,961; interest, taxes, etc., $8,403,825; leaving a net income of $9,486,136. The surplus is $2,400,000.

AN INTERSTATE CASE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Peter B. Wickoff, general freight agent of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, was arrested last night charged with violation of the Interstate Commerce act. Wickoff is charged with having secured in the case of the wholesale grocers against the railroads.

Edward Benn, a Wichita lumber dealer, refused to receive a car load of lumber from him at jobbers' rates, as contemplated in the first Wichita decision made by the board of trade. Benn, who is a resident of the city, has been in the lumber business for many years, and his refusal to receive the car load of lumber is a direct violation of the Interstate Commerce act.

A VICTORY FOR KANSAS JOBBERS.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 30.—The state board of railroad commissioners has handed down a decision which is of interest to country jobbers, as it may be considered an indication of the attitude of the board in the case of the wholesale grocers against the railroads.

Edward Benn, a Wichita lumber dealer, refused to receive a car load of lumber from him at jobbers' rates, as contemplated in the first Wichita decision made by the board of trade. Benn, who is a resident of the city, has been in the lumber business for many years, and his refusal to receive the car load of lumber is a direct violation of the Interstate Commerce act.
